Description

This small Art Nouveau hotel is close to the center of Ribes de Freser. It was opened in 1907 in an old horse station. All of the historic architectural elements, floors, and many items of equipment here are still preserved in the original. The family-run hotel and restaurant is known for its traditional regional cuisine and a good price-performance ratio. Equipped with 8 hotel rooms, it is a popular holiday destination for nature lovers. Located in the picturesque part of the Catalan Pyrenees on the banks of the river Freser, involving the starting point for hikes and trips to the Vall de Nuria.

The spacious rooms, pool, restaurant and a chapel on the same grounds are available for the guests in the season. The property offers all the prerequisites to transform it into an intimate and stylish boutique hotel.
